NATHANOP.PPETU@GMAIL.COM || DATE OF BIRTH: 30 JUNE 1997

OBJECTIVE ||

I am a future policy analyst with experience of working on a variety of foresight and public policy projects. I work on all aspects of public policy, innovation and organisational strategic planning. My past work has been academic focused, with some degree of success. But now I have a strong passion to participate in practical policy work. I believe in every possibility and I believe every dream can come true, we just need to take action.

KEY ACHIEVEMENT ||

My project has been exhibited at Innovation Thailand Expo 2019 which organized by Innovation Foresight Institute and Nation Innovation Agency. This project is a future scenario building of work in the future by the heading "Images of Futures: How do you work in the future"

I have been a part of core team of Advisory Board to the minister of Higher Education, Science, Research and Innovation. An important contribution that I am proud of is my assignment to support the minister advisory board to write "White Paper" on the topic "Policy Framework for Thailand Rehabilitation and Development in New Normal after The Covid-19 Pandemic"
